Ready, set, write: Tell your Tale contest now live

The “Tell Your Tale” short story contest is officially open and accepting submissions until Oct. 6, 2019. Our next Rose Parade float, “Stories Change Our World,” will act as an inspiration for the young writers. Children ages 5 to 17 are eligible to submit their short stories at theupsstore.com/literacy and up to five winners will be selected to receive $1,000 scholarships and $10,000 worth of books to their school or a non-profit organization of their choice.

Head to the MHC for a counter card and receipt tag to help you promote the contest with your customers in-store. The contest itself is meant to promote childhood literacy as it’s a part of our partnership with the Toys for Tots Literacy Program

For more details on the contest, as well as updates on the Rose Parade, head over to the Hub!
